

Librarians' Best Web Picks

Newsletter |||||

Focusing on websites of interest to Westchester

FALL 2009

Living in Westchester Your Swine Flu Resources

With so much concern about H1N1 these helpful sites under the “Health & Nutrition”

section of

Librarians' Best Web Picks

will get you the answers

Centers for Disease Control 2009 H1N1 Flu

www.cdc.gov/H1N1FLU/

Each week the CDC analyzes information about influenza disease activity in the United States and publishes findings of key flu indicators in a report called FluView.

Flu.gov

flu.gov/index.html

One-stop access to U.S. government H1N1, avian and pandemic flu information.

Information is also available in Spanish, Chinese and Vietnamese.

National Library of Medicine Enviro-Health Links

<http://sis.nlm.nih.gov/enviro/swineflu.html>

This site provides links to information about federal, state and international responses, guidance for professionals and maps, news, twitter and webcasts.

New York State Dept. of Health H1N1

www.health.state.ny.us/diseases/communicable/influenza/h1n1

The new “flu season” officially started on September 1, 2009. For the 2009-2010 flu season, the New York State Department of Health (NYSDOH) has enhanced existing flu monitorings systems and will use a multi-tiered approach to track influenza activity across New York State. The Department will provide weekly updates of these various measures of flu activity to ensure that every New Yorker has access to the latest information. The weekly updates will occur on Thursdays and you will find them here.

New York State Influenza Update

www.ny.gov/h1n1/index.html

Briefings and press releases from New York State and links to NYS Department of Health.

Westchester County Department of Health Latest Swine Flu Information

www.westchestergov.com/health/default.htm

For the latest information on H1N1 including FAQ's, facts, brochures and prevention tips.

WHO Pandemic (H1N1) 2009

www.who.int/csr/disease/swineflu/en/index.html

For global updates and information about the swine flu, browse through this web site.

Rachel Charny

Manager, Professional Development
Westchester Library System