

April 2008

What, Where, When

By: Marisa LaScala

Galas & Benefits

Westchester

April 3: WJCS Anniversary Celebration. The Westchester Jewish Community Services celebrates its 65th anniversary with a dinner at X2O. X2O Xavier's on the Hudson, Yonkers (914-761-0600).

April 6: An Evening of Jazzical. Musician Joel A. Martin and his quartet combine jazz and classical music for a dinner-dance to benefit the Westchester Oratorio Society. Emily Shaw's Inn at Pound Ridge, Pound Ridge (914-763-9389; westchesteroratorio.com).

April 11: Alcott School 40th Anniversary Gala. The Alcott School celebrates its anniversary with a professional art auction and wine dinner. CV Rich Mansion, White Plains (914-472-4404).

April 11: B-52s Concert. The Peak's DJ Jimmy Fink hosts a concert with the colorful B-52s to benefit the Open Door Family Medical Centers. The Performing Arts Center, Purchase College, Purchase (914-251-6200; artscenter.org or 914-502-1414; opendoormedical.org).

April 11: Junior League's Around the World in 80 Wines. The Junior League of Northern Westchester hosts a wine dinner to honor the contributions of Seema Boesky. At Crabtree's Kittle House, Chappaqua (914-234-4714; jlnw.org).

April 13: MS Society Hudson Valley Walks. A 6.2- or three-mile walk around Playland to benefit the MS Society. Playland, Rye (914-694-1655; wewalk4ms.org).

April 16: Project Morry's Spring Blast. Project Morry, an organization that enriches the lives of at-risk youth, presents a gala evening with cocktails, music, a wine tasting, and a silent auction. X2O Xavier's on the Hudson, Yonkers (914-592-3055; projectmorry.org).

April 17: Westchester Library System's Book & Author Luncheon. Renowned authors, including Dark Tide's Andrew Gross, read from their books to benefit the Westchester Library System. (914-674-3600).

April 26: SPCA of Westchester Wags & Whiskers Walkathon. A three-mile walk is followed by food, live music, and games to benefit the SPCA of Westchester. FDR State Park Preserve, Yorktown (914-941-2896; spca914.org).