WLS Names Patricia Fontanella Board President

POSTED BY WESTCHESTER.COM
FRIDAY, 22 FEBRUARY 2008

Tarrytown, NY - The Westchester Library System (WLS) recently named North White Plains resident Patricia Fontanella as president of the organization's Board of Trustees.

Fontanella takes the place of Dave Donelson, who served as president from 2006-2007. The appointment was announced by Siobhan A. Reardon, director of the Westchester Library System.

"We look forward to the insight, experience, and leadership that Patricia will provide over the coming year," said Siobhan A. Reardon, director of the Westchester Library System. "She has done a wonderful job as vice president and we anticipate her continued dedication, commitment, and success as president."

Patricia Fontanella, executive sales administrator for McMichael Yacht Brokers Ltd. in Mamaroneck, has been on the Westchester Library System's Board of Trustees for seven years, serving as vice president for the past two. She is past president and currently a trustee for the North Castle Public Library. Former board memberships include Westchester/Putnam School Boards Association Executive Committee, the Holy Name of Jesus Parish Council, the Junior League of Westchester on the Sound, and trustee and officer for the Valhalla Board of Education. Fontanella received a B.S. degree in Education from the State University of New York at Cortland. She resides in North White Plains with her husband, Joseph.

"I'm thrilled to be a part of such a vital organization in our community," said Patricia Fontanella, president of Westchester Library System, Board of Trustees. "As president, I will seek to further the Westchester Library System's mission to ensure that all residents have seamless access to excellent library service
